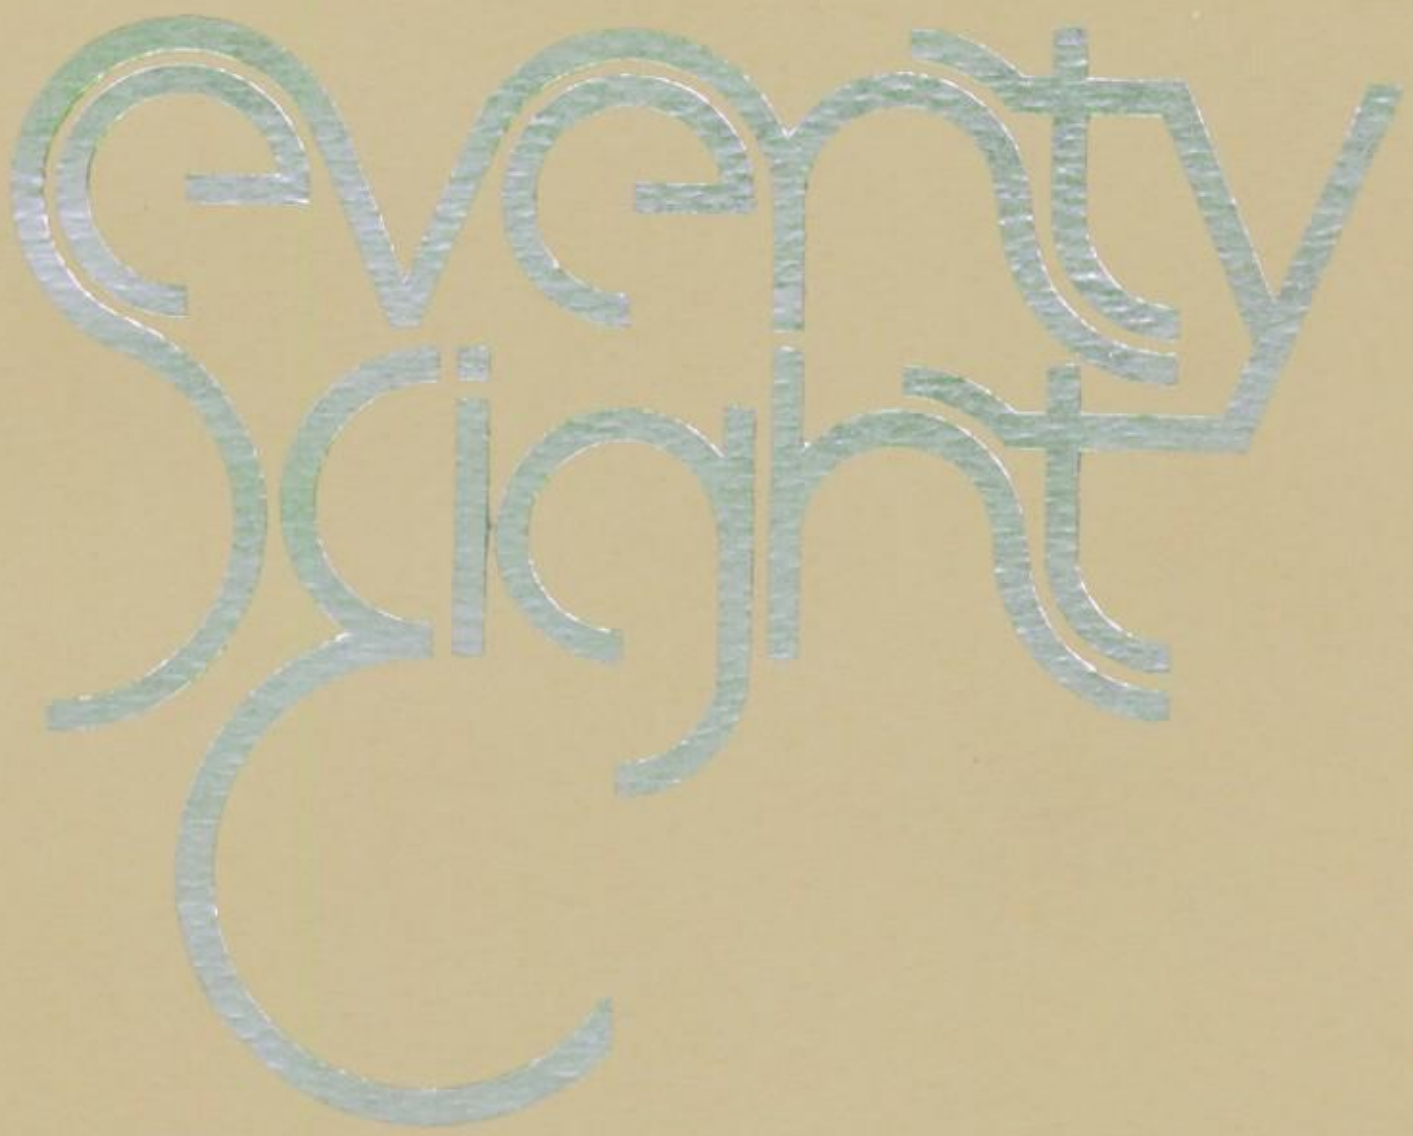
WHITTINGHAM

TROJANS



oh very young
what will you leave us this time
you're only dancing on this earth
for a short while
and though your dreams may toss
and turn you now
they will vanish away

like your daddy's best jeans denim blue fading up to the sky and though you want him to last forever you know he never will (you know he never will)
and the patches
make the goodbye harder still
oh very young
what will you leave us this time
there'll never be a better chance to change your mind

and if you want this world
to see (a better day)
will you carry the words of love with you will you ride
the great white bird into heaven and though you want to last forever you know you never will (you know you never will)
and the goodbye
makes the journey harder still
oh very young
what will you leave us this time
you're only dancing on this earth
for a short while
what will you leave us this time

Destiny

Who knows what lies behind us all
That we who live to-day
Might train a rose along a wall
And see our children play?

We cannot mark each deed or thought
In some long vanished year By which the present earth was wrought for us to labor here.

But all we find along our way
To times by-gone we owe.
The world is as it is today
Because men made it so.

And Since today must be the sum of all that was before.
Our lifes may hold what is to come
When we shall be no more

Blindly perforce the road we tread
And cope with good and ill
That one a thousand years ahead
His little place may fill

So strangely is God's purpose planned
That none of us can see
Into the great uncharted land
Which men call destiny

Now we are here and know not why
The end no man can say;
The answer to our lives may lie
Long centuries away.

(Edgar A. Guest)

"Do not let anyone look down on you because you are young, but be an example for the believers in your speech your conduct, your faith, love and purity."

There are no gates-no fences-no bars.

Out there among the stars we will be free.

There are no shadows for the hearts to see."

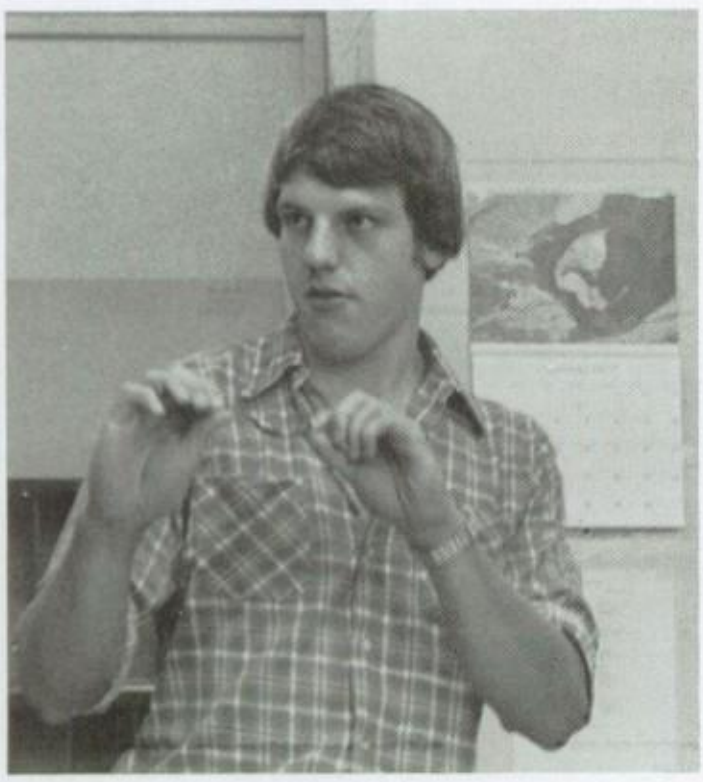
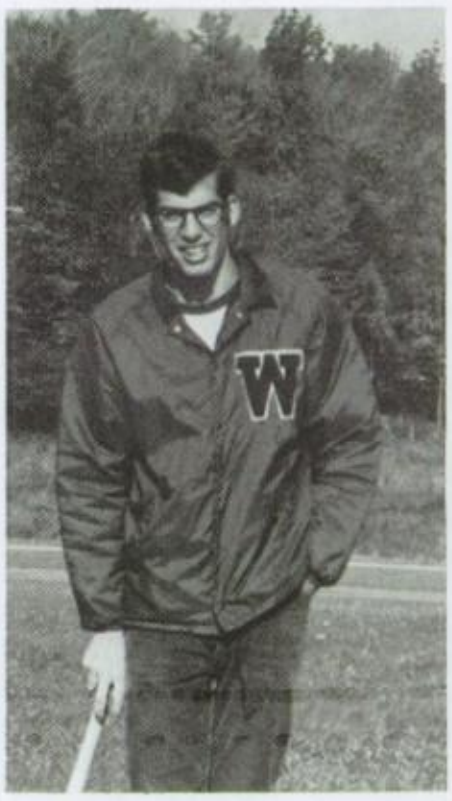
Another tough guy; note fierce look on face.



How about this one? In this shot he's setting up his famous 1-2 combination.



And who'd think of messing with this guy with the bat?

Scattered pictures of the smiles we left behind, smiles we gave to one another for

The Way We Were.

Can it be that it was all so simple then or has time rewritten every line.

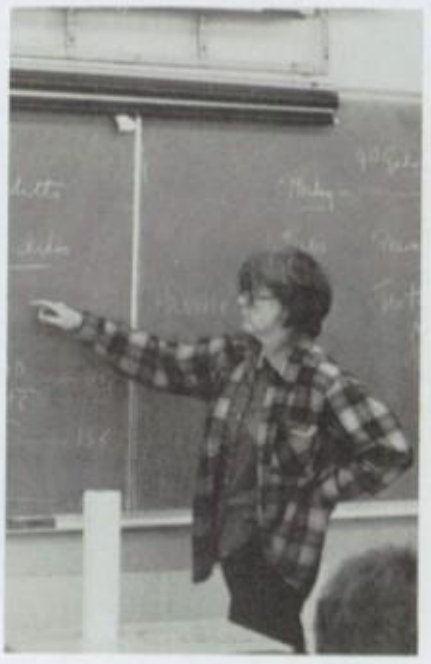
If we had the chance to do it all again, would we, could we?



Memories may be beautiful and yet, what's too painful to remember, we simply choose to forget.

So it's the laughter we will remember, whenever we remember

The Way We Were.
